In Loving Memory of Letitia Ann West

Letitia Ann West was born in Seattle, WA, on November 11, 1963. She is the third of six children born to the union of Irving Sr. and Edna West. She attended Seattle Public Schools, growing up in the Mount Baker community. Letitia was known to many as "Tish." She was a natural-born leader, ruling the playground of her elementary school and acquiring many friends along the way. She was always there to protect, lend a helping hand, and help resolve any issues that may arise.

She loved to eat sour balls and ginger and lemon preserve; playing kickball and hanging with friends from the neighborhood were all staples of her childhood. Throughout her life, she applied her gifts of helping people to customer service and sales, obtaining many accolades, and earning awards along the way.

Tish loved to cook; she inherited her cooking skills from her mother. She would always ask, "Are you hungry, baby?" She also loved to do hair and created many "elixirs" to help your hair grow. When she was finished with your hair, it was a no-no to say, "Thank you." She commanded you to say, "More hair."

Tish cherished her family and friends and would do anything in the world for them. She gave her beloved ones a name of endearment, calling her oldest son "Suki my Buki." She loved all sports, was a diehard Seahawks fan, and loved anything pink.

She is preceded in death by her grandparents, Jessie and Marie Moore, and her mother, Edna West.

Letitia leaves to honor her memory: father, Irving West Sr., children, Eunice Palmer III (Jeanine), Dejane West, Shiron Ciara West, and Cionte West; grandchildren, Eunice Palmer IV, Alora Palmer, Zalen West, and Aneres West; siblings, Clyde Wells Jr. (Katherine), Janice Bentley (Charles), Irving West Jr., Victoria West, and Geylar Locke (Phillip); a host of nephews and nieces; many other loving relatives; and longtime friends.

The Family wishes to have a private Memorial service. Please feel free to join family and friends, at the repass on Sat. 5/4 from 2PM – 4PM at Full Gospel Pentecostal 5071 Delridge Way SW, Seattle, WA 98106

Self-Examination

Let's just be honest, let's just be real

By Chardonnay Beaver

I believe it was Sis. Loaf, as in the rapper DeJ Loaf, who preached to the choir when singing "let's just be honest, let's just be real" in one of her popular songs. For some odd reason, everytime I'm about to have a moment of self-examination that eight word chorus plays in my conscious.

The concept of 'being real' in the age of highlight reels and filters is difficult. I'd argue this phenomenon is less of an authenticity deficit, and more of a matter of honesty.

I thank God I didn't have a village that cradled my feelings.

Growing-up in a household with two brothers, my sister and I weren't easily moved by jokeful antics or witty come-backs. The jokes that were most comical, and a bit hurtful at times, were the honest ones.

Honesty has the ability to resonate beyond the guards we put up, and filters we live behind.

The greatest gift we can give ourselves is honesty. To clarify, I'm not referring to self-critical critique and self-depreciating ideas. Self-honesty should be motivated by a desire to accurately examine ourselves.

One way to approach this examination is to honor your position in creation.

Words of Wisdom by Char of The Week: First, we are created beings. We didn't form ourselves nor choose the family we were born into. It's imperative to examine yourself not through moments of insecurity or achievement, rather through the context you were born into.

Examining the context you were born into may usher in discomfort, for most us. Perhaps you don't know your biological parents. Perhaps your birth wasn't planned by your parents, and has been labeled as an 'accident' or 'mistake'. Perhaps the success of your parents imposed a sense of pressure that you struggle to overcome.

Many of us penalize ourselves for behaviors that are simply by-products of our contexts. However, this doesn't negate self-accountability. Considering that all of our lives have a purpose, examine how your context has informed your perspective of God, self, and others. Romans 12:3

Bible Prophecy Now By: Evangelist Clara Ann

Revelation 13:9 Whoever has ears should listen (NIRV Bible). The gos-pel word is (Revelation) Revelation 1:1 This is the revelation from Jesus Christ. God gave it to him to show those who serve God what will happen soon. God made it known by sending his angel to his servant John.

Revelation is to reveal answers to unknown secrets and unveil hidden mysteries so we can have a personal relationship with Him.

The Book of Revelation is the last book in the Holy Bible. It is the Testimony of Jesus Christ speaking to all peoples, nations, languages, cultures, traditions, customs, tribes, religions and habits everywhere to repent, live holy, be filled with the Holy Ghost, baptized in Jesus name believe the gospel, because God has won the war with Satan and victory over death. Revelation chapters 12,16-20.

Jesus Christ the Son of the living God, has redeemed the children of God, the saints, the born again, the followers of Christ with His blood. Revelation 6:9-17.

The book of Revelation gives us mini warnings to avoid the abominations, not worship idols gods, obey all of His commandments, do not practice witchcraft, or commit sexual sins. Revelation 22,14,18-19.

A blessing to those whose names are written in the Lambs book of life, and they will enter into the new Jerusalem, new heaven and a new earth. Revelation 19:9 Blessed are those invited to the wedding supper of the Lamb.These are the true words of God.

The Book of Revelation is written with many strange signs and wonders in the sky,storms and images of beasts, birds, insects and animals.

I am a messenger sent by Jesus Christ to write to the whole world.I am making all things new. You can trust these words. They are true Revelation 21:5.

Have you asked Jesus into your heart? Jesus desires to establish a personal relationship with you.The Holy Spirit and the bride say come, and the person who hears should say come.Anyone who is thirsty should come.Anyone who wants to take the free gift of the water of life should do so.Revelation 22:17.
